The ninth meeting of the Board of Directors of Banco de la República has begun

The ninth meeting of the Board of Directors of Banco de la República has begun
The June meeting of the BDBR (#JuntaBanrep) started today at 8:30 a.m. This is their ninth meeting this year.

Monetary policy decisions will be made at today's meeting.

Until August, the benchmark interest rate completed 16 months unaltered at 4.25%. The last time this rate was lowered was on 30 April 2018.

What decisions will be taken today, Monday 23 September? Find out after 1:00 p.m. by watching our livestream transmission. Through this channel, citizens, analysts and/or journalists can deliver their questions to the Governor of the Central Bank, Juan José Echavarría, and to the Minister of Finance, Alberto Carrasquilla, who will respond in real time.

Similarly, a press release reporting on today's decisions will be published once the meeting is over.

Fuente: https://www.banrep.gov.co/en/ninth-meeting-board-directors-banco-republica-has-begun