Financial Stability Report - Second Half of 2024

Financial Stability Report - Second Half of 2024
The analysis presented in this edition of the Report concludes that the Colombian financial system continues to maintain adequate capital and liquidity levels that are not only above the regulatory minimums, but, in the aggregate, would even be sufficient to face the materialization of extreme low-probability risks.

Fuente: https://www.banrep.gov.co/en/news/financial-stability-report-second-half-2024