

Central Bank Macroeconomic Modeling Workshop Israel - 2009

Where and when?

- Jerusalem, Israel.
- Not locked in on the site yet, but probably close to Jerusalem center and Old City...
- Proposed Date: 28-29 October 2009 (Wednesday-Thursday).
- Optional: Organized tour to Dead Sea and Massada on Friday, 30 Oct. 2009.
- Submission date of first draft – 30 June 2009
- Please let us know if you find a severe problem with those dates.

Proposed options for main workshop theme

- New advances in open-economy models (within that - exchange rate modeling and dealing with exchange rate uncertainty).
- Monetary policy under supply side shocks (within that – use of core inflation, supply side uncertainty).

2010 Workshop

- Bank of ...

Do we need to remember all this?

- We will open a link from the Bank of Israel's English web site.
- We will send a preliminary call for papers soon after the workshop.
