

Decree 444 put into effect a new exchange system that increased the Bank's involvement in the control of the Foreign exchange flow fundamentally related to the management of foreign currency budgets and the regulation of supply and demand for foreign exchange.