

The Governor of the Banco de la República participated in the XXXVIII meeting of South American Central Bank Governors

The Governor of the Banco de la República, Juan José Echavarría, participated in the XXXVIII meeting of the South American Central Banks Governors held on November 20 and which, on this occasion, was organized by the Central Reserve Bank of Peru. This meeting is held yearly and constitutes an opportunity for participating governors of central banks to exchange views on the regional economic context, its implications with regard to monetary policy, and the main challenges central banks face.

The official communique of the meeting is available (only in Spanish) at: <https://www.banrep.gov.co/es/el-gerente-general-del-banco-republica-participo-xxxviii-reunion-presidentes-bancos-centrales>

Vínculo externo

The official communique of the meeting is available \(only in Spanish\)

Publication Date

Tuesday, November 24, 2020 - 12:00

Hour

12:16

- Print