1,000-peso Coin

1,000-peso coin characteristics (only in Spanish) Must reads 1,000-Peso Coin Last modified Wednesday the 3th of June, 2026
The 1,000-peso coin produced at the Mint was put into circulation on 12 November 1996. It pays tribute to the Sinú culture, one of the best-known pre-Columbian cultures of our country, by using a filigree earring based on a design developed by architect Dicken Castro as the design for one of its faces.

Main characteristics AlloyWeightDiameterThicknessCopper 92%
Aluminium 6%
Nickel 2%7.30 g21.67 mm2.76 mm

The currency is distributed through banking establishments and is packaged in boxes and cases, the contents and value of which are as follows:

Distribution of the currency Number of cases per boxCoins per caseValue of the caseValue of the 000 pesosBlue

Fuente: https://www.banrep.gov.co/en/banknotes-coins/1000-peso-coin-1996