

Tenga en cuenta

The series Working Papers on Economics is published by the Office for Economic Studies at the Banco de la República (Central Bank of Colombia). It contributes to the dissemination and promotion of the work by researchers from the institution. This series is indexed at Research Papers in Economics (RePEc).

On multiple occasions, these works have been the result of collaborative work with individuals from other national or international institutions. The works published are provisional, and their authors are fully responsible for the opinions expressed in them, as well as for possible mistakes. The opinions expressed herein are those of the authors and do not necessarily reflect the views of Banco de la República or its Board of Directors.

Autor o Editor

Fabio H. Nieto, Luis Fernando Melo

Autores y/o editores

Nieto, Fabio H.

The construction of coincident indexes for the economic activity of a country is a common practice since the fifties. The methodologies vary from heuristic methods to probabilistic or statistical ones. In this paper, we present a new procedure for estimating a coincident index of the state of the economy which is optimum in a statistical sense. This procedure is based on state space models that do possess the steady-state property. We apply our methodology for computing a coincident index for the Colombian economy. Key words: State of the economy, Coincident Index, State Space Models.

---

---